

LaTeX " " , BibTeX, multi-letter vars

utilise

$\sim$  vs  $\approx$

'this' (antecedent)

verb 'to be'

ly/

passive vs active ("we observed")

'impacts'

importantly/interestingly / 'incredibly' / 'note that'

weak quantifiers (very, quite)

clause order: start strong/interesting

avoid 'respectively'

between/among

"and" splices

"Additionally" (motivate)
"occur"

'dependence'

verbs / nouns

'positively influences' → increases
has a positive effect / impacts

'We found that' / 'It has been observed that'

(Topic of interest for a long time)

newly introduced
italicize terms

'clarify'

avoid 'hypothesize'

formal word ordering (ex?) we did not find any / we found no
Positive / affirmative phrasing (failed / did not succeed)

Orwell, Strunk + White [omit]

"There is / there are"

verification
"has larger ♀-biased"
"females are larger"